HONORS LIST

It gives me great pleasure to announce the names of individuals who have been granted honor awards for service with the Central Intelligence Agency. It is my privilege to express my personal appreciation and the appreciation of all employees of the Agency for the services of these individuals. We all know that their exceptionally meritorious service has been of great benefit to the Agency. I take this opportunity to commend and thank them for their personal deeds of valor or their significant contributions to the security and intelligence effort of the United States.

The attached Honors List includes the names of persons officially affiliated with CIA who have been granted awards since the inception of our Honor Awards Program in 1953. The list is distributed for the information of Agency employees only.
